A New

An old ending, and a new beginning, that's what's ahead for the New William Campbell High School. The doors will be opened to new faces, new rooms, and new friends.

The old W.C. will be a new beginning for the William Campbell Middle School Students. They, too, will be adapting to new surroundings which will help in furthering their education.

We'll all be surrounded by a new atmosphere. It's a New Beginning at W.C.

Beginning

Isn't she cute? Wendy Mason is seated on the float that the Football Cheerleaders made for the Homecoming Parade.

SCA President, Brenda Nowlin is caught by our roving photographer with a smile on her face.

Gloria Carwile remembers her beginnings as a student who couldn't do homework without the television or the radio playing.

Playing the drums for the Pep rally are some of the band members.

From 8,

It's classtime. Students are taking out books, doing last minute checks on their homework, or waiting patiently to receive that test paper back that they didn't study for.

It's almost time for the bell to ring, students are sitting in their classes wondering if they'll have time to get a snack, a drink or just talk to some people.

Once that bell rings, there's no turning back, the halls are crowded and there are only 5 minutes to get to each class. Everyone races to his locker to get his books and rush to class. As the tardy bell rings, the halls of W.C. are deserted once again until the next class period.

Mock Congress. Allison Williamson acts as President Pro-Tem of the Senate in the mock-Congress in Mr. Boothe's Government class.

When the bell rings students crowd the halls to go from class to class.

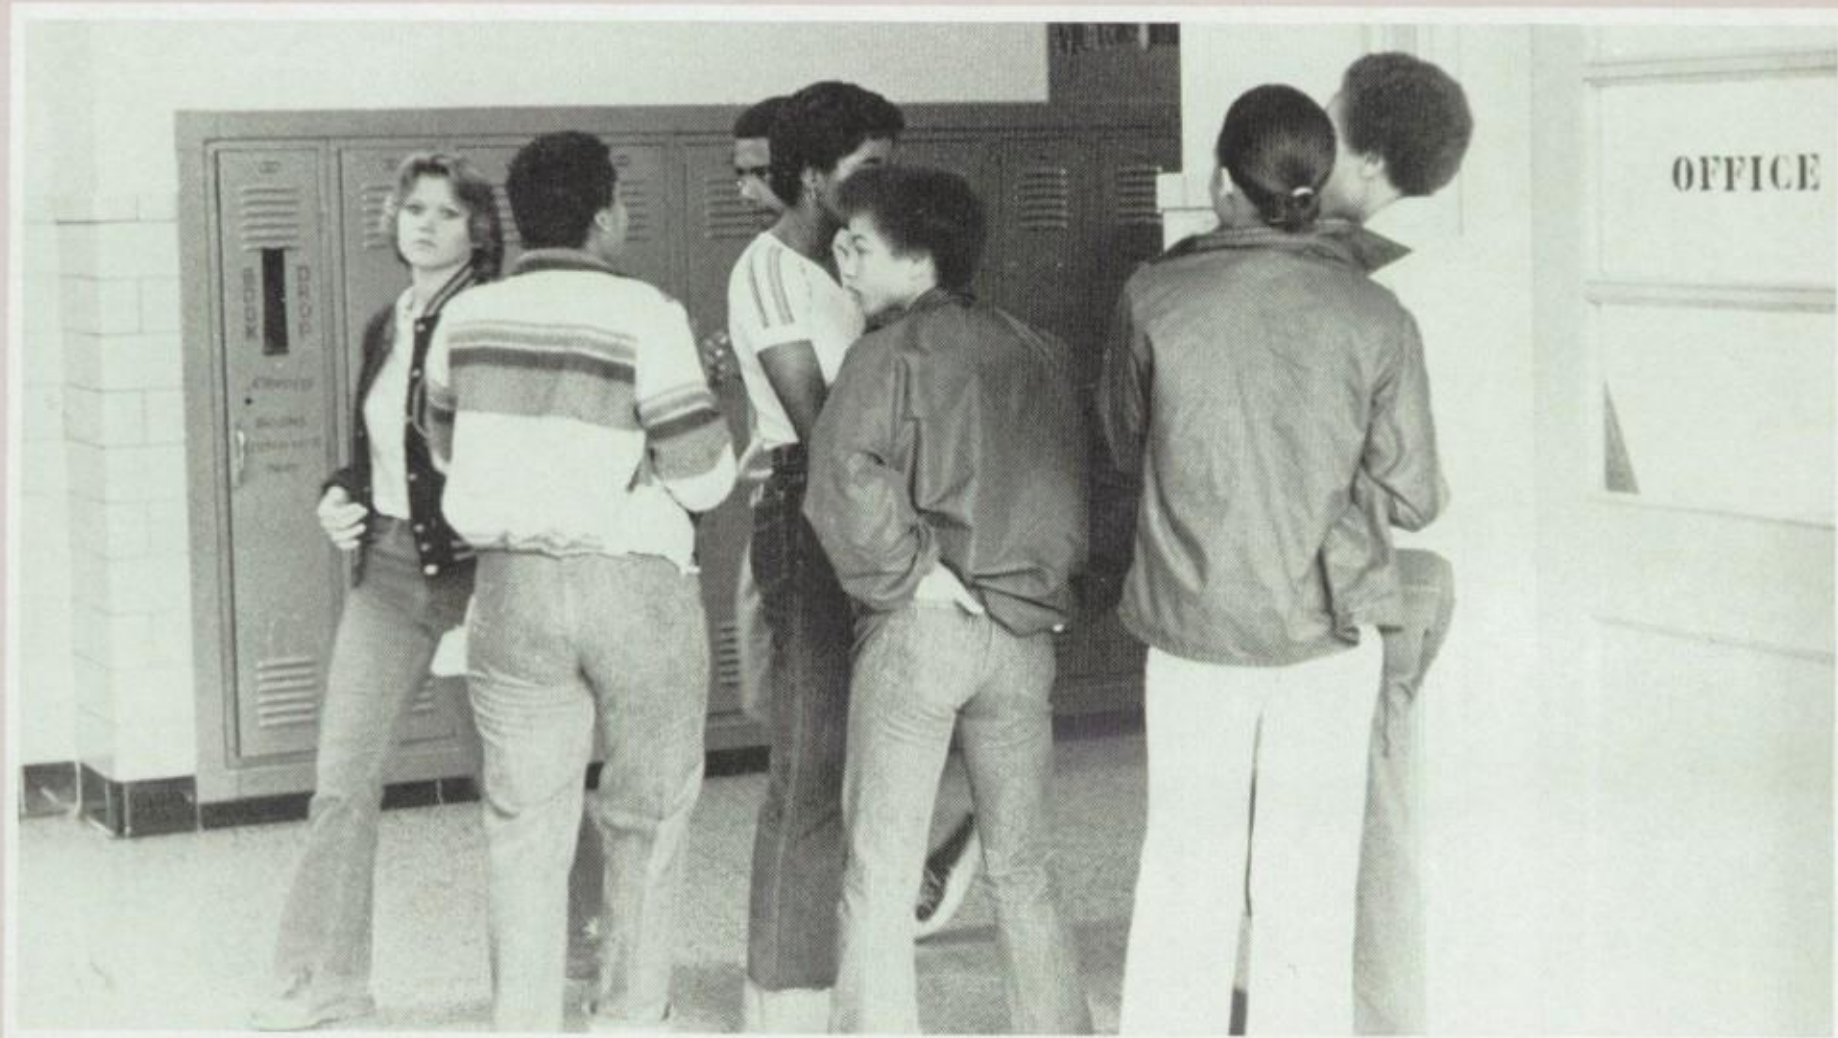

That's not a cigarette, but a lollipop in Karen Mosby's mouth, as she looks at pictures in Journalism.

Let's hope that's not his but Sandra Foster's purse that Tim Carr is investigating.

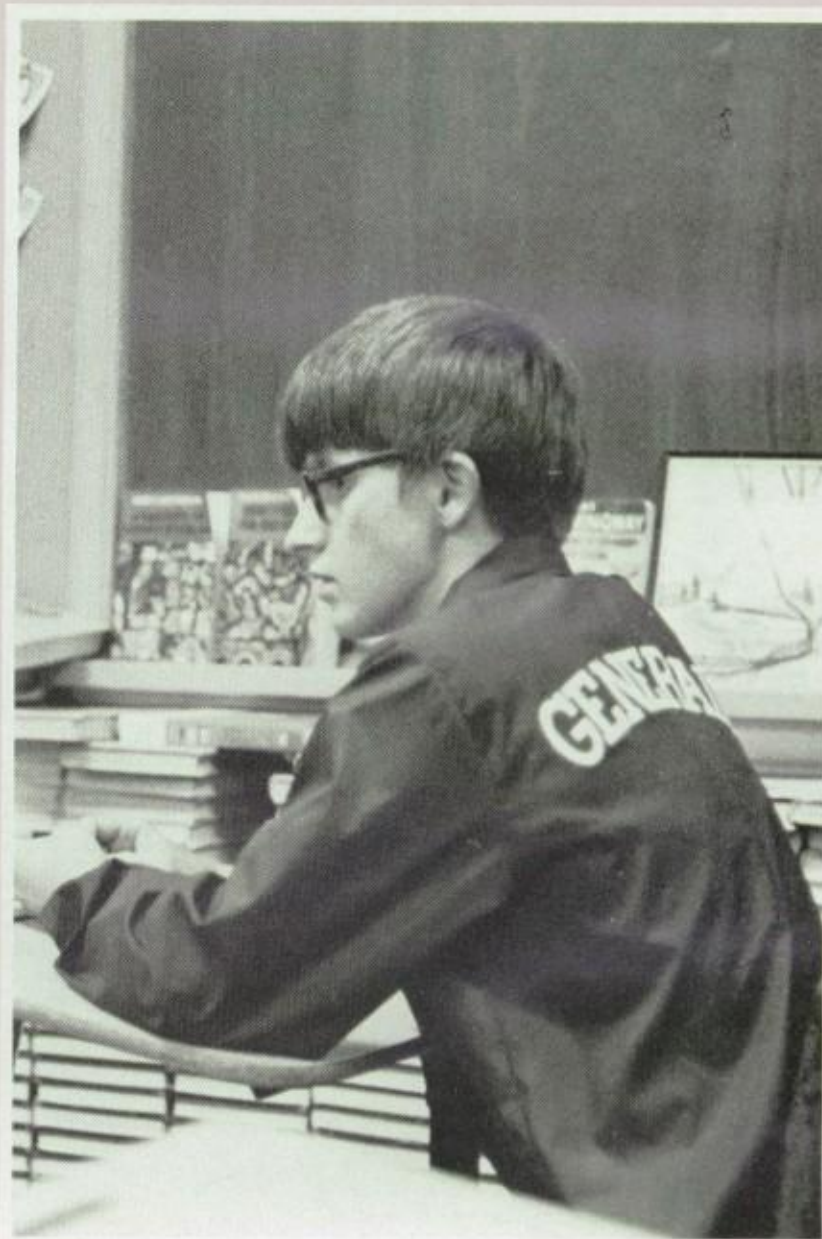

Doing nothing, which is what is usually done in Journalism are Barry Williams, Teresa Colbert, and Lynn Jones.

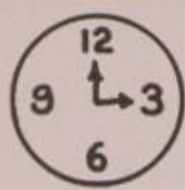

In the mornings before homeroom you can find students everywhere, from inside classrooms to outside the office.

You can bet that it ain't no worms in that apple. While waiting for the bus Warren Younger decides to take an apple break.

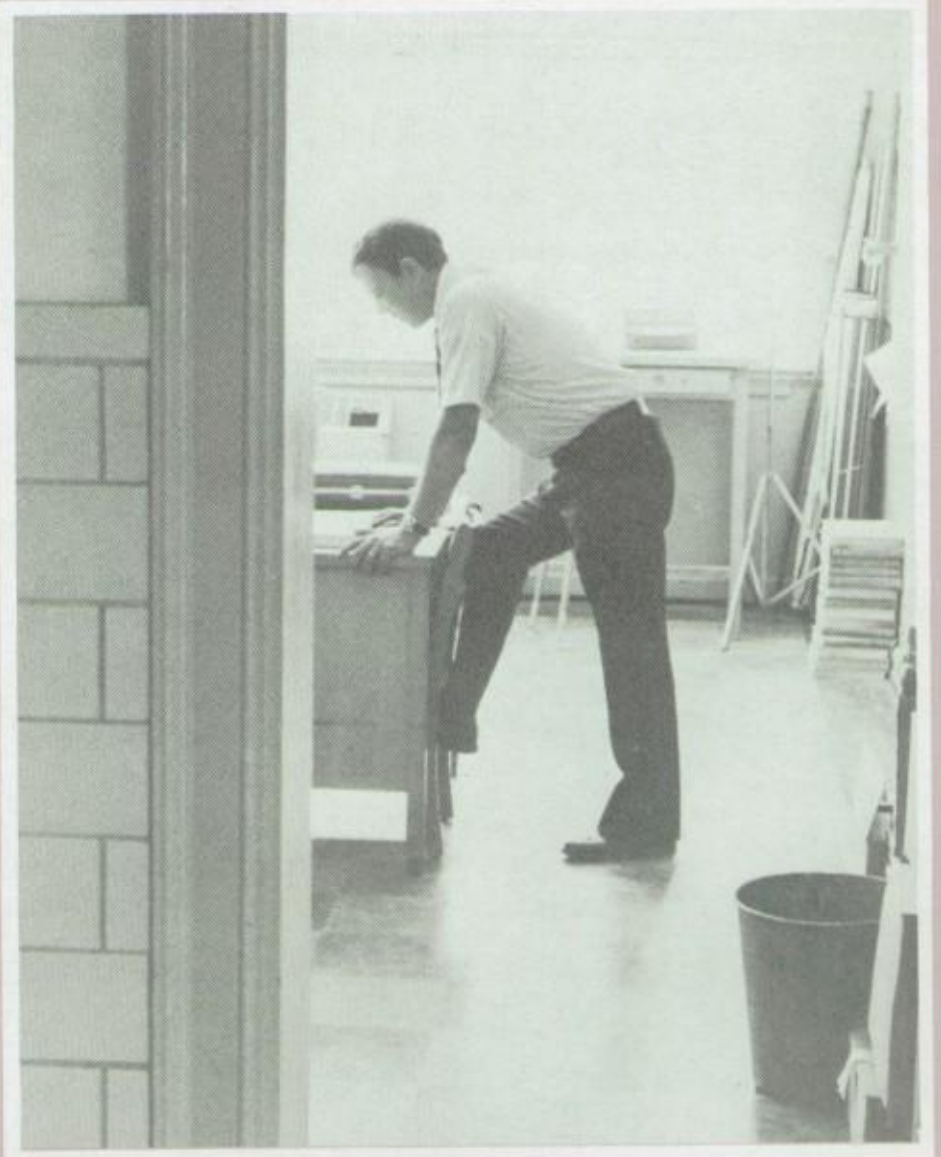

Seeming really excited about being in Mrs. Wallace's English class is Max Elder.

Discussing a problem Kaziah seems to have about something she's typing are JoAnn Clark, Kaziah Barbour, and Jackie Herndon.

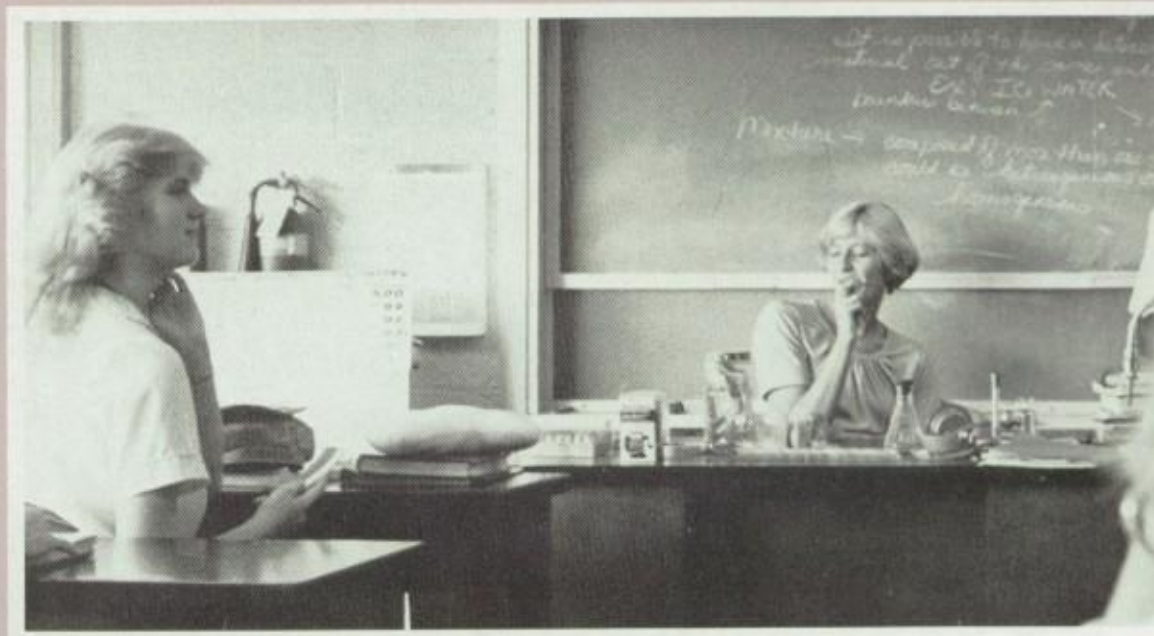

Better get inside before the bell rings! Karen McIvor, and Kevin Mosby stand outside their classroom before class.

Mr. Boothe, who taught at W.C. a few years ago returned to teach Government.

A special event of the day is the 10 minute break between 2nd and 3rd period class. This gives students time to catch their breaths from 1st and 2nd periods, and it's also used as a quick study period. Between the other classes there are only 5 minutes to get to class.

Lunchtime is funtime at W.C. for most students. During this time students visit the smoking area, walk the halls, chat with their friends, or stand in line to get to lunch.

In Mrs. Gring's Chemistry Class, she and Pat Trent laugh at an unpictured Freddie Jackson.

During Spirit Week these girls along with Charles Haley dress up like they did in the fifties.

Focus On fashions

FASHIONS

The year of the fashions is here at W.C. Guys and Gals are wearing double belts, other styles are baggy pants, high heels, and new hairdos for girls, short haircuts for the guys, along with their new styles of shoes.

Sit back and relax as you take a look at the fashion Catalog of W.C. for the seasons of '79-'80.

"Showing Off" their fashions is Michelle Hamlette wearing a big top with a small waist belt, Frances Brogdon is wearing a double criss-cross belt to set off her white blouse and blue pants.

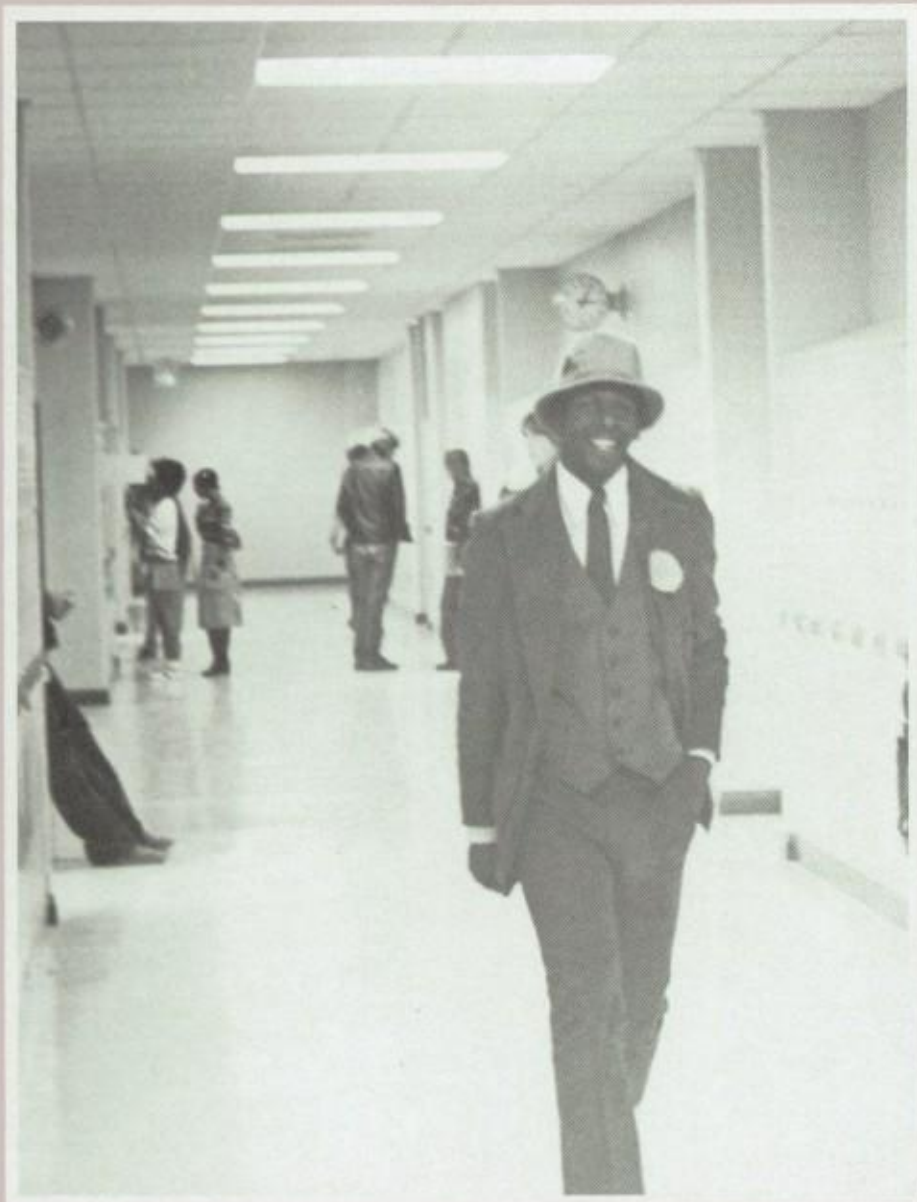

"Feet don't fail me now", That's what these various styles of footwear seem to be saying as they are being shown off in front of the camera.

"Strutting their Stuff" Roxie Mosby, Tina Yuille, and Venis Adams display their styles of fashions, to add to W.C. Fashion Catalog.

"Look at me now," says Tara Burnette posing with a checkered blazer and a white top with the small bowtie adding to the "Finishing Touch"

A brown three piece suit with the hat as a "Special" effect, is worn by James Haley who displays it proudly.

Wearing a fashionable two-tone scarf, Emily Dejarnette, is enjoying keeping warm.

There weren't many assemblies held this year due to the delay in the completion of the Auditorium and the Gymnasium. At the time of publication of the yearbook there had been an Assembly presented by the Ensemble and Mrs. Purcell's 8th grade students, a Coaches' Appreciation Assembly, and some Pep Rallies. The Assemblies that were held were excellent, and the students through the cooperation showed how much they enjoyed the assemblies and how much they appreciated the people who made the Assemblies possible.

Cheerleader, Angie McIvor does a cheer in honor of the Coaches.

Oh-Oh! The Teachers don't seem to be showing much spirit during the Pep Rally.

Mr. Smith receives a Coach's T-shirt from Beth Loftis during Coaches Appreciation Assembly.

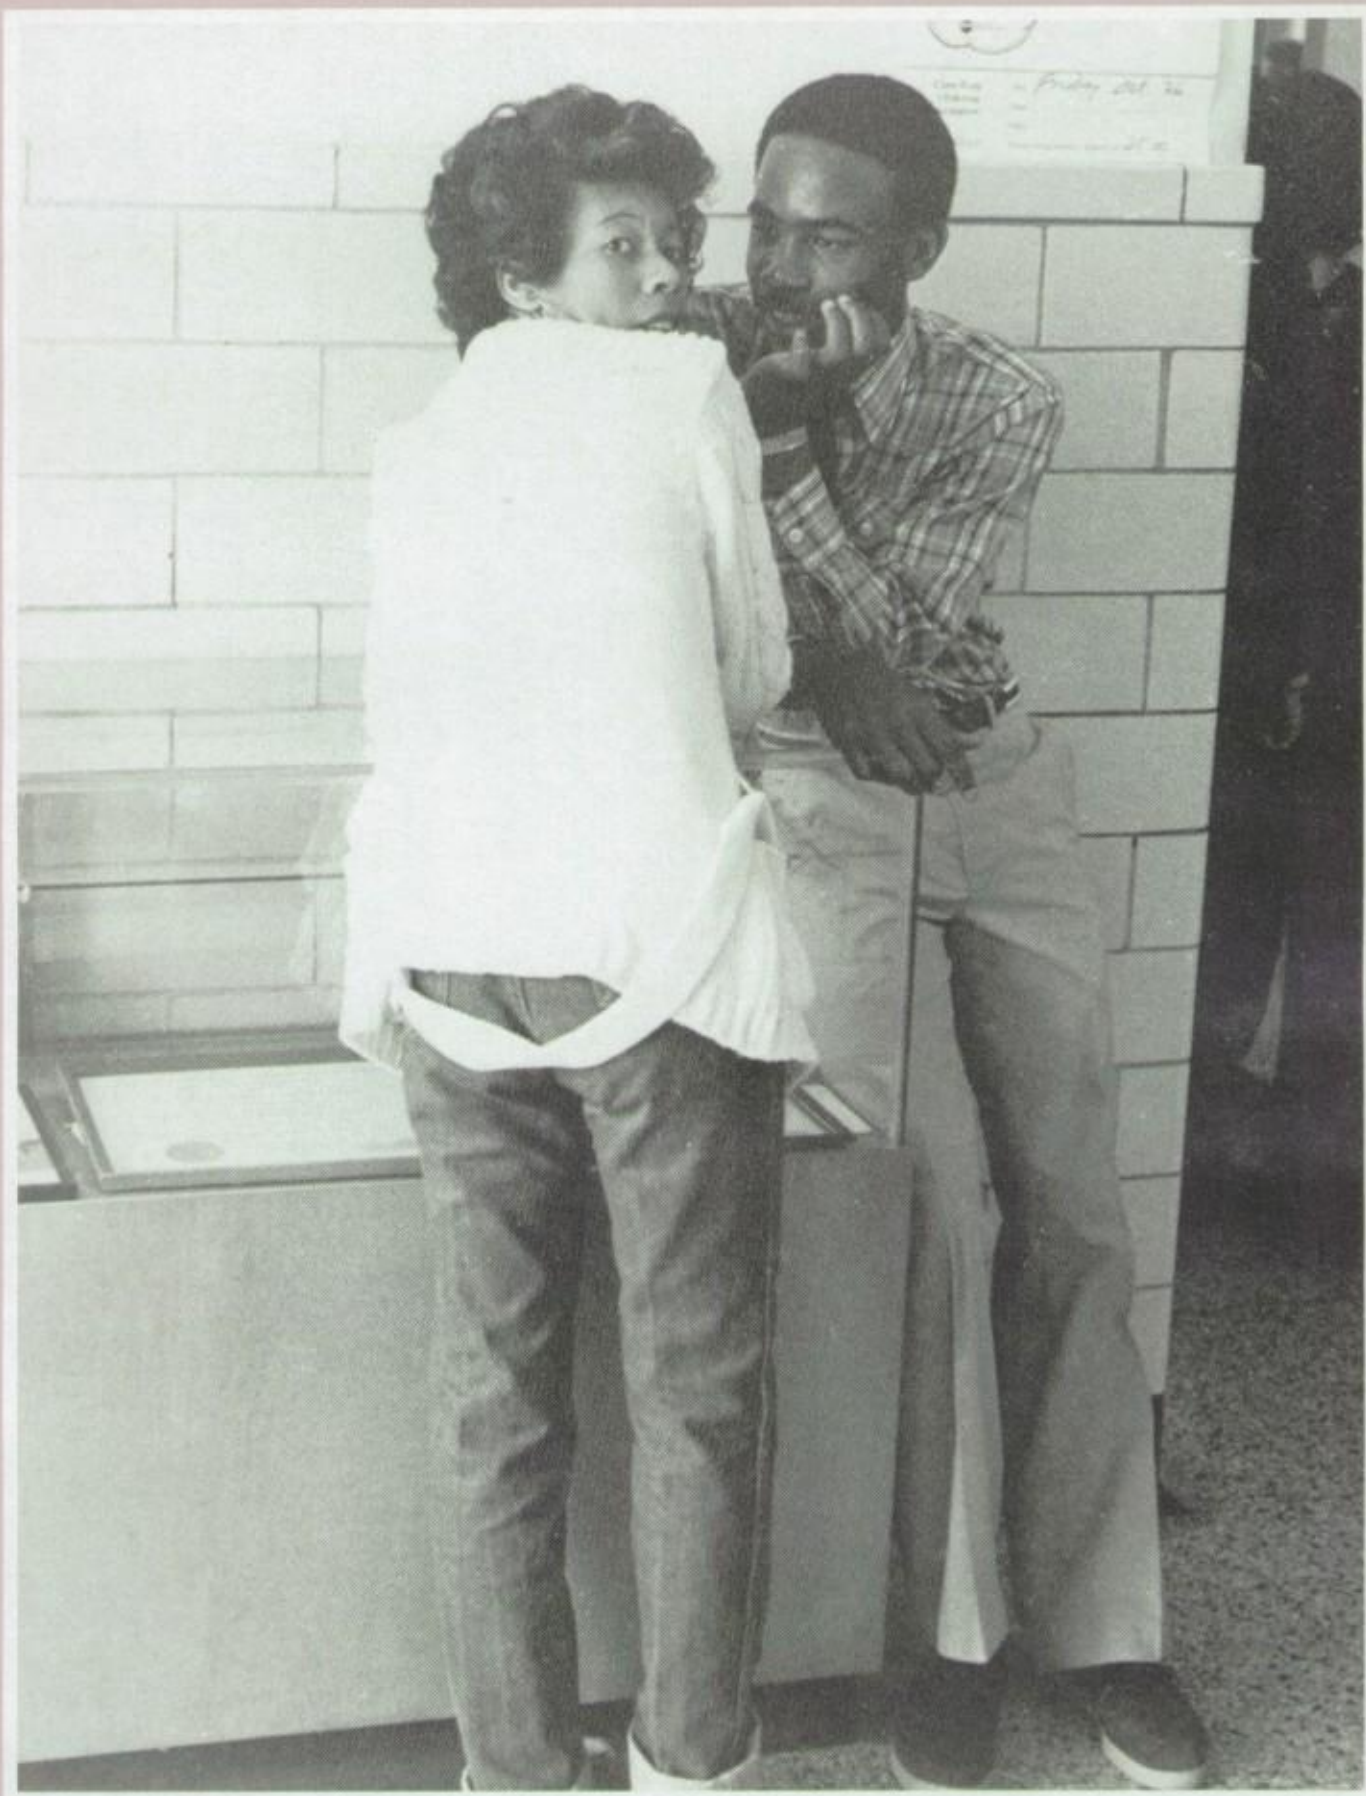

Go Generals!

The band plays at the only outdoor Pep Rally we had this year.

The cheerleaders do an acrobatic cheer at the Pep Rally.

The friendship between C.F. Younger and Fannetta Lovelace is evident as they stand by the showcase outside the office.

Friendship is probably the last thing on these guys minds as they wait for the game to start.

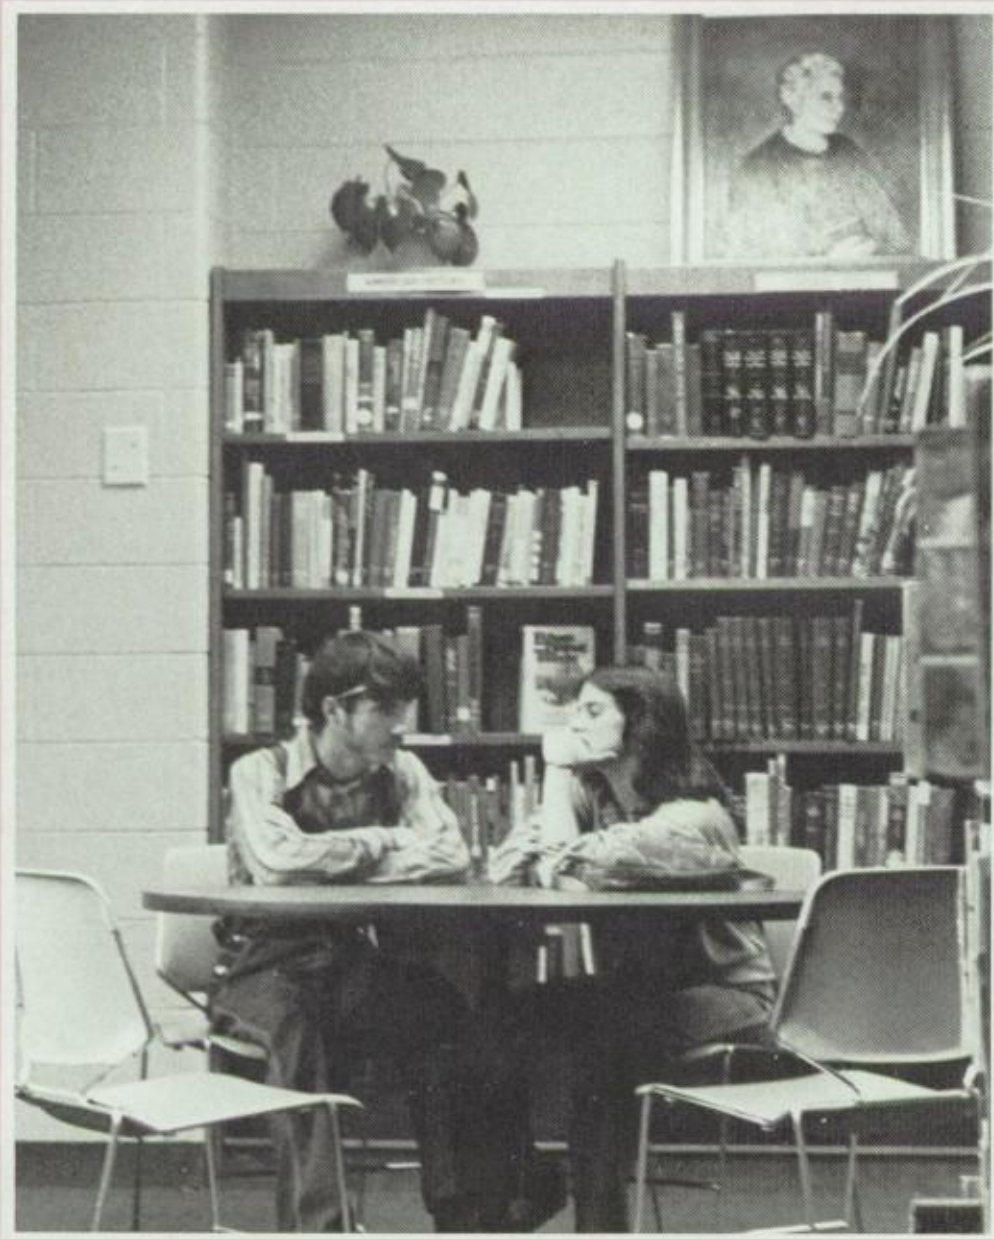

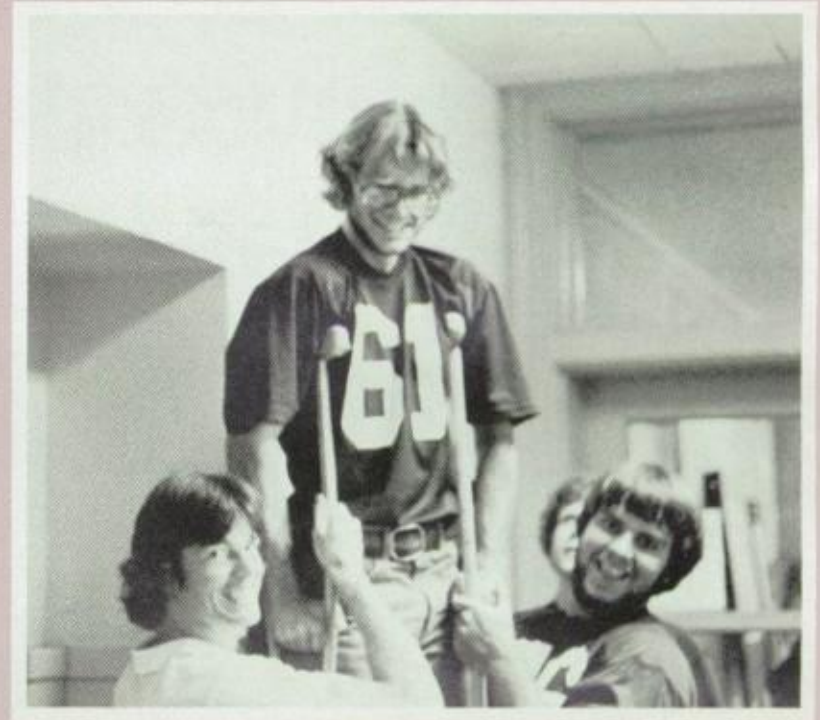

Friendship

Friendship, whether it be between students and students, students and teachers, or teachers and teachers, is a very prominent part of the life at W.C. Because of the smallness of the school there is a special unity between the people in it. As always there is the Boyfriend — Girlfriend friendship and the students that are pals, but there is also a large increase in the friendship between students and teachers, which denies the myth that there can't be friendship between the students and the one who must teach them.

Robert disturbs the teacher in order to get his picture taken, or is to keep Mrs. Lindsay from giving them too much Homework.

Talk about skyjacking. Mark Scott and Danny Martin give Mike Milnor a lift as they stand in the hall during lunch.

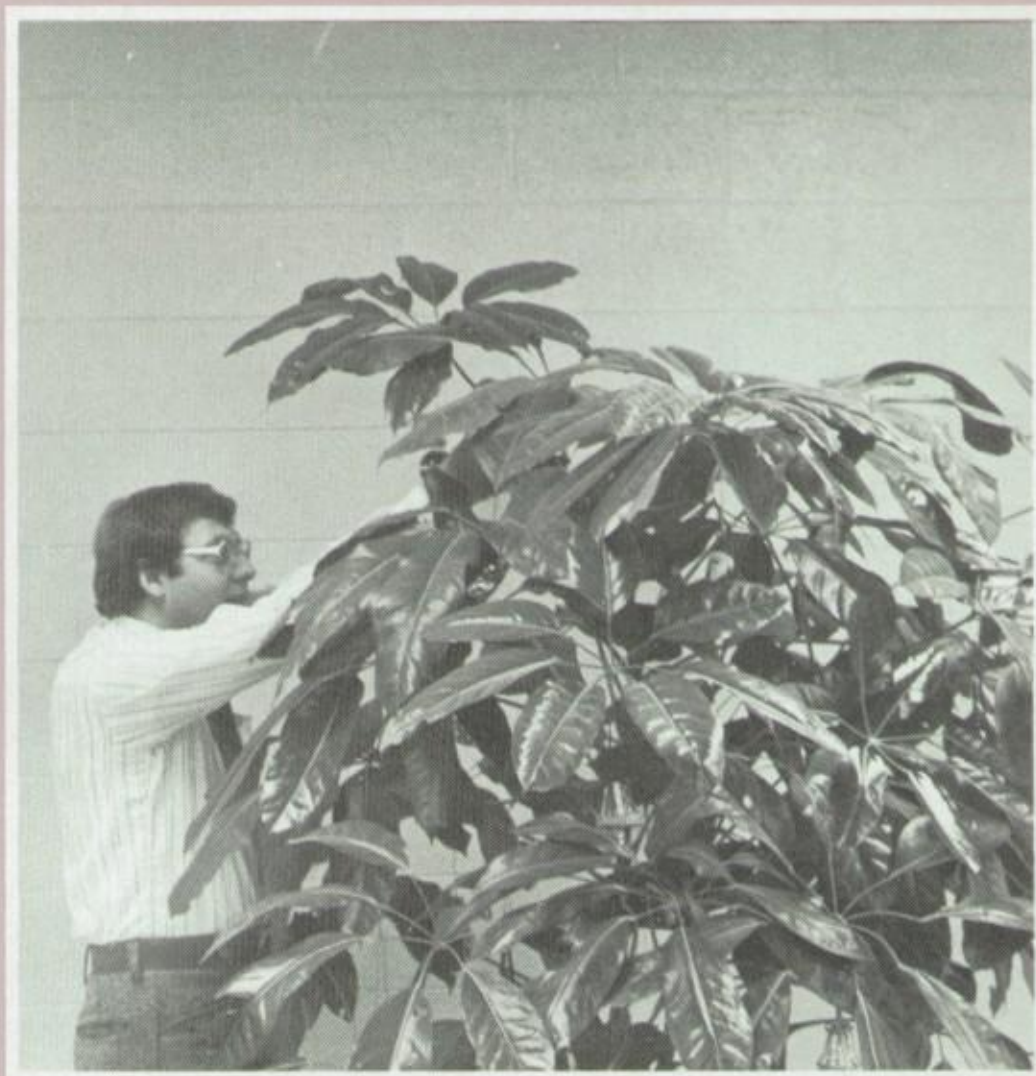

Mrs. Tucker instructs Venis Adams on how to help her grade some papers.

Peace and Quiet. That's what Philip Shephard and Tammy Overstreet have as they sit in the Library.

Christmas

Christmas is a very special time of year at W.C. for the students as well as the teachers. Each and everyone can't wait for xmas break and most of all Santa Claus; the teachers and the students get that needed break they've been waiting for, before returning in Jan. for Exam. We all get a chance to rest our brain and have a very Merry Christmas and a Happy New Year.

Then it is back to school for the Generals.

"What am I doing?" Mr. Peak is trying to figure out where the next decoration on the Umbrella Tree goes.

"Merry Christmas to every body in Mrs. Gring's Chemistry Class and also a Merry Christmas to Mrs. Gring who's birthday happens to be a day after Christmas.

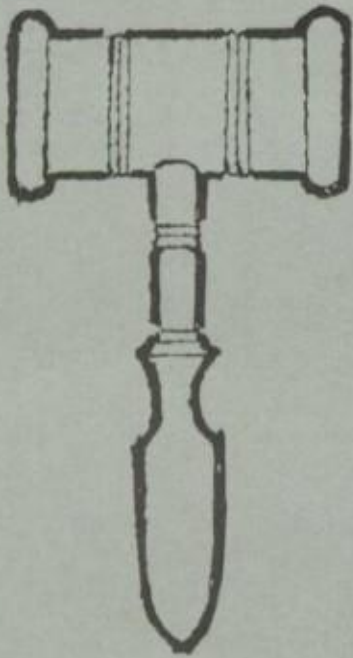

Decorating the Scheffalera Venulosa tree, better known as the Umbrella tree is Mr. Barry Rice who planted the tree and kept it this long. On the other side is Mr. James Peak helping out.

This Xmas tree was decorated by Mrs. Lindsay's math classes to keep in the Xmas spirit.

YUMMY! This christmas cake was one of the many items the yearbook staff had for their Xmas Party.

Working Towards The Future

FFA

FFA is the national organization of, by, and for students enrolled in vocational agriculture. William Campbell is ranked third in the state and we participate in many contests — crop judging, dairy judging, public speaking, along with parliamentary procedure, and tractor driving. It is also involved in many money making activities; selling calendars, ads, and candy. The reason for its success is not what it does, but the people who are involved in doing it.

The Journalistic

NEWSPAPER

After several years absence a new newspaper staff has been formed at W.C. Published every two weeks "The Command Post" attempts to keep students and the faculty alike aware of all the important events taking place in General Country.

For the staff it has been an interesting year of growing experience in journalism.

Next year "The Command Post" will be entered in various competition events throughout the state.

Teams

Due to the inexperience, and past mistakes, the Staff had a really hard time this year. With only three experienced persons returning, the task of teaching twenty-one students how to put together a yearbook was a great one. However, with a few adjustments and correctly placed priorities the staff came through and produced a finished product that conveyed the message of how WC took to its New Beginning.

The Staff positions are:

Mrs. Sandra Tucker — Sponsor

Alice Younger — Editor

Roxie Mosby — Business Manager

Brenda Nowlin & Susan Cheatham — Copy Editors

Althea Younger & Jane Kirkland — Layout Editors

Voice Of Student Body

The Student Council Association was put together for the purpose of getting the students together as one body. The SCA sponsors two annual dances: the Homecoming Dance and the Valentine Dance. These dances are held to raise money for the SCA. The SCA is composed of the whole student body with officers acting as the voice of the students.

Voice Of The Clubs

Inter-Club Council

The Inter-Club Council consists of all the S.C.A. Officers and the Presidents of the Clubs at William Campbell. They get together and plan a calendar of events for each of their clubs. This helps in keeping down a great deal of confusion. Each club has its own time of month to have sales, sponsor dances, bake sales, etc. "They work together to serve others."

The Intellectuals

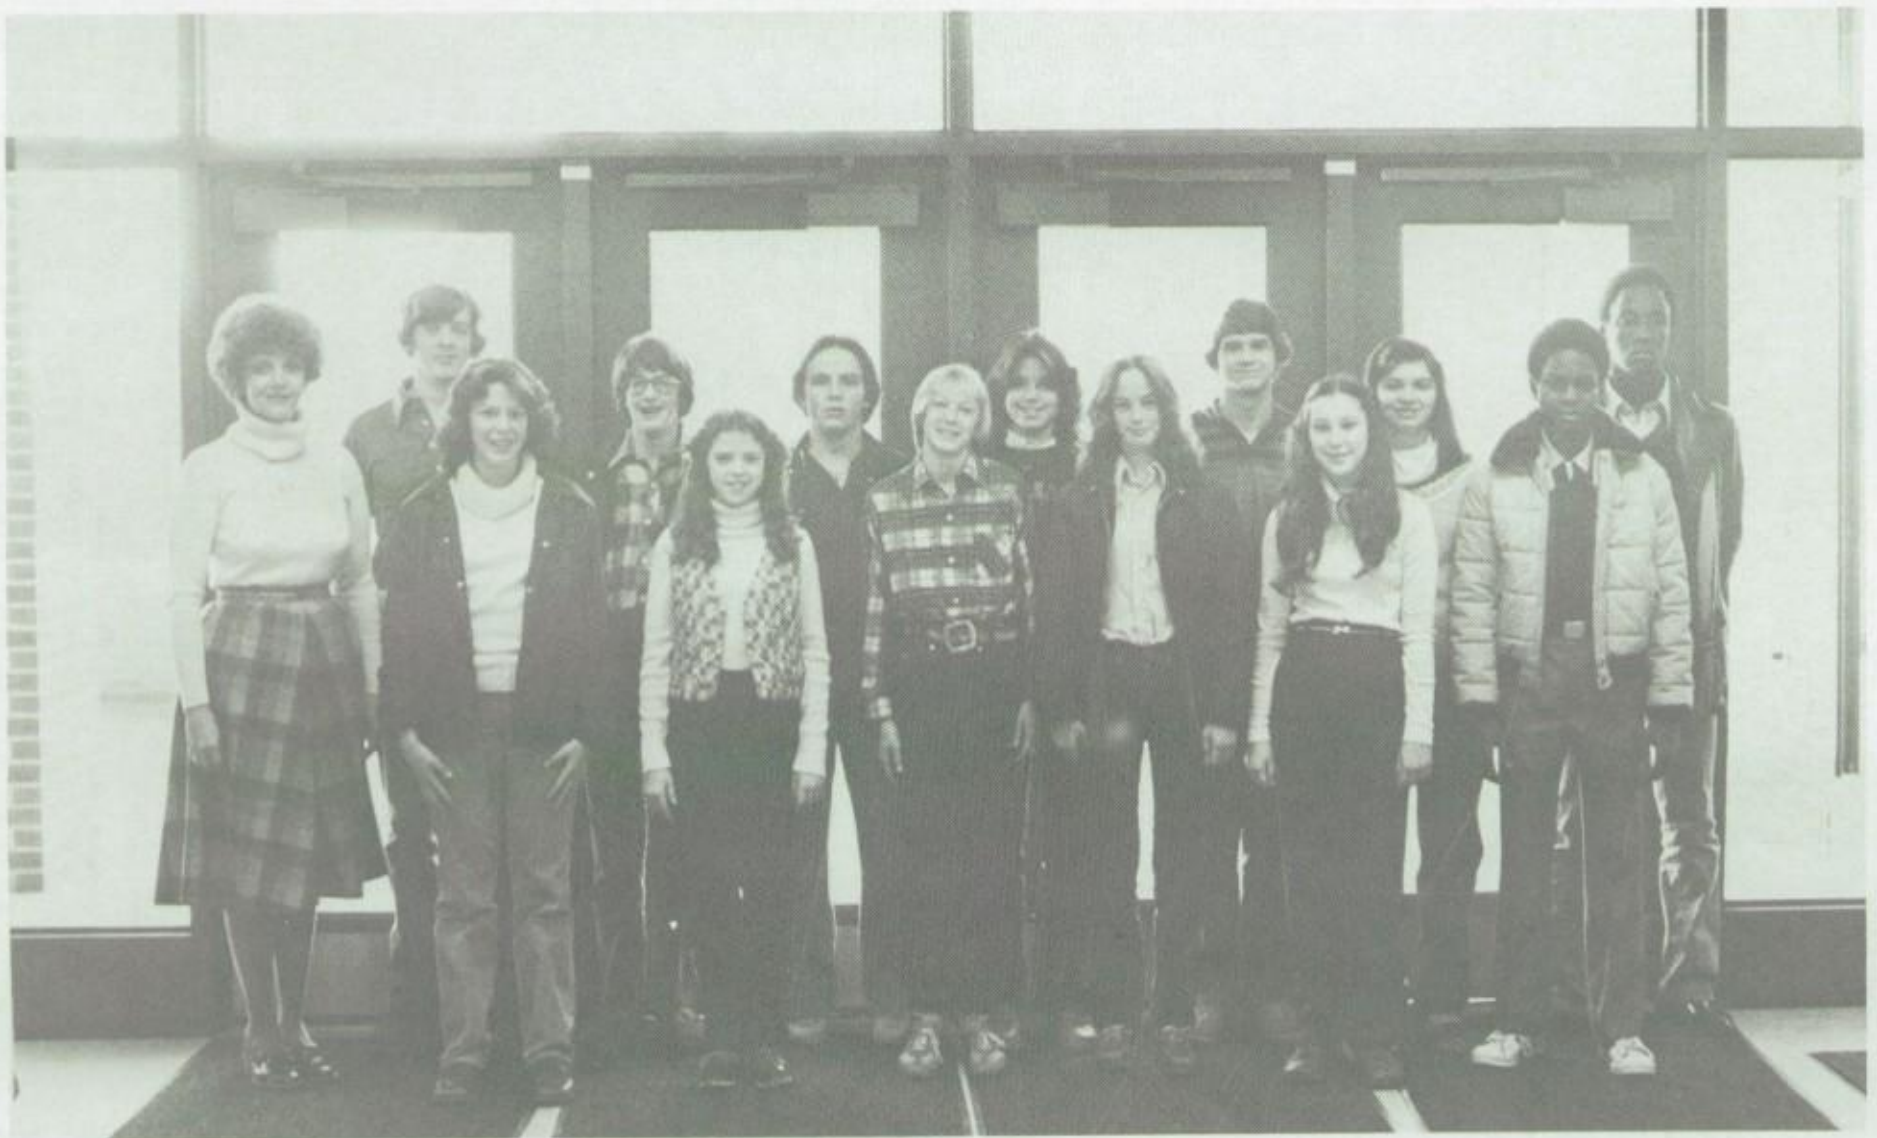

Forensics

Forensics means Communication through Speeches, oral reading of poetry and prose, and Dramatic Presentations.

Forensics is sponsored through the VHSL, just like sport, and our team participates in district, regional and state competition. Also we participate in Invitational Meets at various colleges like Longwood.

The following are comments from some Forensics members: "It is very nerve-wracking during competition but if you ever win once you know all the work and practice has been worth it." "In Forensics you learn how to express yourself better."

The Debate Team not only had an abundance of experienced members, but also a great number of new members from both the high school and the middle school. They found that not only was this year's topic of foreign trade confusing, it was also broad. The members also discovered that the only way to understand the procedure of a debate round was to participate yourself. The team attended several college-sponsored debates as well as the district competition. Chocolate candy was used as the main money-making project to pay for the materials and entry fees.

They also have a new addition to the Band Family; Miss Jan Woods.

Ms. Beverly Jones organized and directed a One Act Play, "The Trysting Place." "The Trysting Place" is a romantic comedy, involving three sets of lovers who each have their problems. However, the working out of these problems is both entertaining and funny.

Moments to Remember

Homecoming was a special occasion this year. The 'General Family' celebrated an entire week. There was the traditional Spirit Week as the Generals showed their spirit by dressing as the day warranted.

As a special treat, a Homecoming Parade was organized. The theme of the parade was 'Moments to Remember'. The parade went well, and this, combined with all the other events that went on during the week, got the spirit up in anticipation of the big night. The night the Generals would go on to beat the Altivista Colonels.

Remembering those old bedtime stories. The football cheerleaders take a stroll down memory lane to when they were little tots.

Ease on down the road. The band, along with director Mr. Temples, get into the spirit of Homecoming during the parade.

Riding in style. Mr. Peak was Grand Marshal in the parade.

The Great Victory. The SCA float remembers last year's victory and anticipates one this year.

The Mad Scientist Strikes Again. Kevin Mosby along with his assistant Robert White create the perfect Altavista Colonel, one that just lays there.

Homecoming ...

Now comes the big night. Spirits are high. The Homecoming Float is pulled onto the field. Six beautiful young ladies are on the float, each representing a class at WCHS.

The Homecoming Representatives were dressed in the costumes of previous Homecoming Queens of the past eleven years. The past Queens were guests that night.

The theme of the Homecoming was Moments to Remember, and that Homecoming will be remembered for years to come.

Cheerleaders

Everybody likes to show their spirit and the best way is to get into the "Generals" Beat along with the cheerleaders. Cheerleaders are the Spirit-makers of the school. Everybody likes to go to the pep rallies and get up, get down, get funky, and get loose.

J.V. CHEERLEADERS — 1st Row: Rhonda Singleton, Tresa Elder, Lisa Elder, Charlene Younger, behind is Robin Hamlette, Lisa Britton and Lavis Younger.

This year's J.V. team started the season with a tough act to follow as last year's team was undefeated. As the season started the team had only one starter returning from the 78-79 undefeated team, therefore, inexperience was a problem. As the season progressed the team gained experience and finished with a 4-4 record. Coaches Barry Rice, Gene Smith and Jack Woodell were all pleased with the season since many felt that the team would not do very well with so much inexperience. Coach Rice stated that he was really proud of the way that the team improved and developed a winning attitude through the course of the season.

Catch me if you can says Richard Barley as he runs the ball for the Generals!

Generals Do it With Class

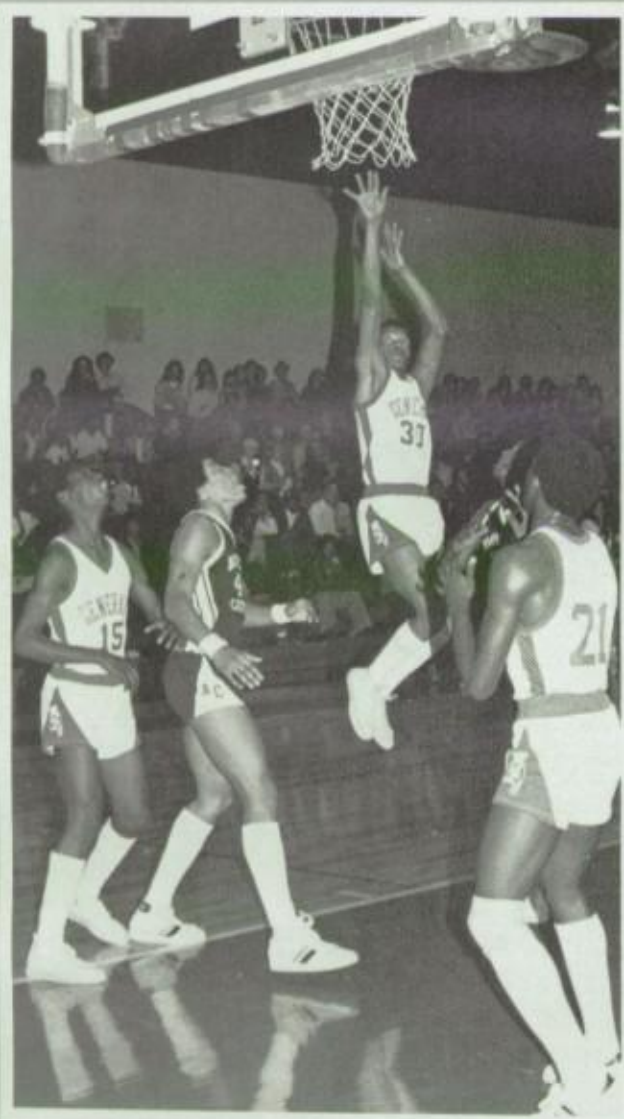

The Varsity Generals didn't exactly have all their get up and go, at the beginning of the season, but nearing the end they did a tremendous job. The Varsity Girls' season didn't turn out as well as expected. They couldn't get things going, but they never gave up, and they struggled on until the end. The J.V. girls' basketball team had an outstanding season this year. This was only possible by their good ability, hard work and their will to win. The final record for the season was 8-2 with a loss to Gretna and Liberty. The girls beat Rustburg twice in very close games which showed their ability to play under pressure. Mrs. Gring commented that she thoroughly enjoyed coaching this team because of the good attitudes about everything. The J.V. boys' basketball team started the year with confidence in themselves and to start a winning attitude. Even though the record was 2-11 the team played very well the last 8 games and have shown they will develop into a very competent varsity team.

Indoor Track

Indoor track is a very individual sport. Each person can strive to achieve their goals during outdoor track season, whether it be running a record breaking time, or just being able to be a member of a hard-working team.

Good Jump! Richard Barley puts his best foot forward in the long jump.

Is it the thrill of victory or the agony of defeat? Levione Stone gives it all he's got in the 60 yard dash.

Kevin Jennings shows the form that got him to the District Track meet.

THE GENERALETTES VOLLEYBALL TEAM — 1st: Kim Francis, Leighann Jones, Tara Burnette, Lisa Moorefield, Kim Morrow, Carol Dee Foster, Veneta Turner, Tica Burnette, Penny Pur-sley. 2nd Row: Cheryl Bennett, Allison Williamson, Frances Brogdon, Kathy Kirkland, Bernice Melton, Mrs. Goldy Purcell, Colleen Corish, Mellissa Martin, Susie Belvin, Gwen Fariss, Jane Poole.

The volleyball team ended its season. The team did not have a winning season, mainly due to lack of experience. The girls worked hard both in practice and in games, they had a good time and learned a lot. We are definitely looking forward to a better season next year with many of these experienced girls returning.

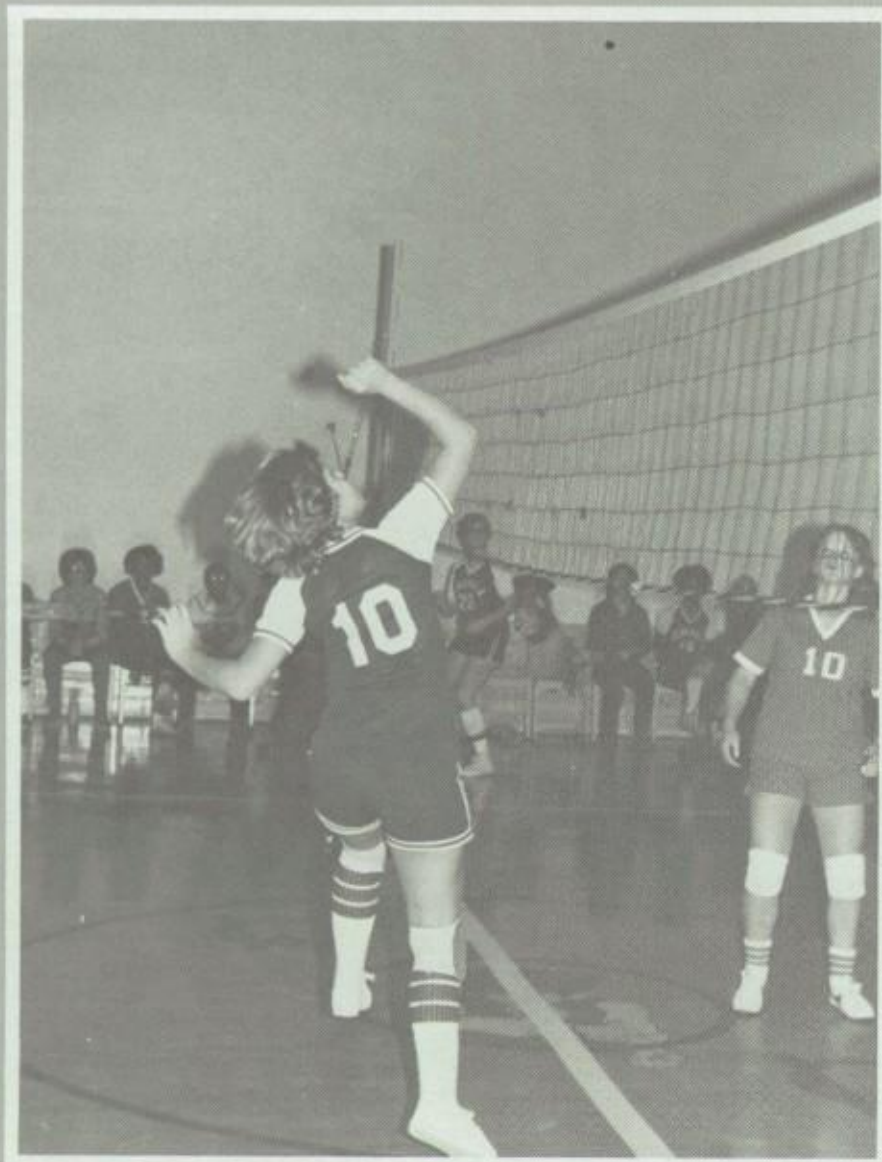

Exploiting great effort is Susie Belvin, leaps into the air for the ball.

"I'm down on my knees, what else can I do" says Kim Morrow, as she awaits the volleyball.

Awaiting the great "Spike" is Venta Turner.

"I got it, I got it!" yells Frances Brogdon, as she prepares to return the serve from the opposite team.

WEIGHT LIFTING

The Weight lifting club was started three years ago with the purpose of making W.C. athletes bigger, stronger, and faster. The club is open to any W.C. student both male and female. Each year the club has a big increase in its membership and this year all the weight lifters are looking forward to moving in their new weight room.

Most of the funds that support the weight lifting club comes from hard work by the members. To be a member of the weight lifting club means that a person is willing to work hard, because many of the members, such as your football players, work the year round. Hard work, means pride and satisfaction in most of the weight lifting members.

Up and Away! John Scott seems to have no difficulty handling this "small" amount of weight.

You've got the cutest little "Baby Face". Well, you're no longer a baby. It's time for you to get out in the world and make it on your own. Some seniors have plans for college, others vocational and technical schools, while others have plans of marriage and some of us just plan to hang around.

The seniors have several activities planned for their purpose. A Senior Nite, After Prom Party, Senior Day along with the Senior Assembly.

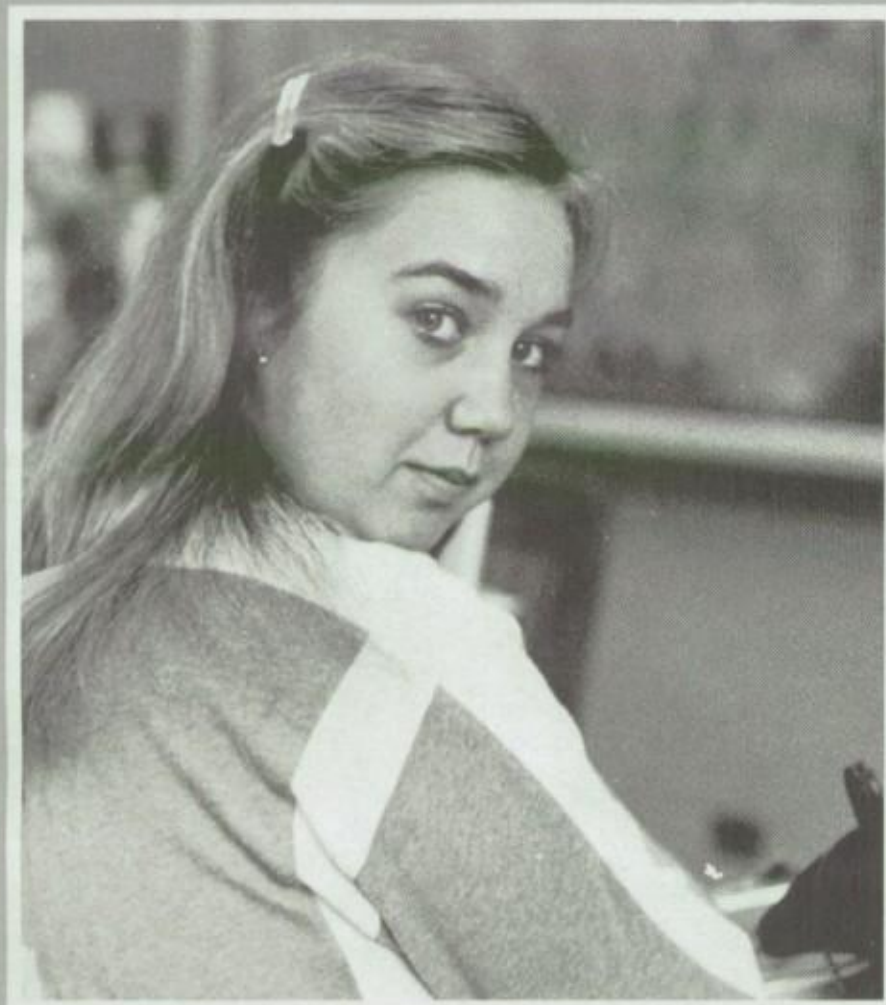

They have already taken Senior Portraits and have plans to take Cap and Gown pictures.

In this day and time, as Seniors, we must make our own decisions, and live by the consequences. Take a chance, and make the best of your life, because you only go around once.

A BRIGHTER FUTURE WE SEE, FOR THE CLASS OF '80

Break through there Emmanuel! Emmanuel Walker tries for a long gain in one of the games.

Jive Time

Only one year left to go. Time slips by when you're working hard toward graduation. That seem to be on every Junior's mind. If you do your best at whatever you do, the only thing left is to succeed.

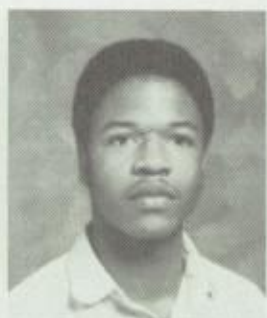

The Battle of the Sexes. Wendy Waller and Mark Scott put on a show for a captive audience.

Sensational

The Sophomore class was once described as the filling to a sandwich, but no more. Now that we have gone through a few changes here at W.C. they are no longer the in-between group. Like the rest of the classes this year class officers were elected and projects begun in preparation for their turn at the Prom and their almighty Senior year.

The class officers for the Sophomore class are as follows:

President — Darryll Dickerson
Vice Pres. — Kim Morrow
Secretary — Karen McIvor
Treasurer — Mary Ruth Williams

Sponsors — Mrs. Crabtree
Mrs. M. Fore
Ms. Talley
Mr. Hardison
Mr. Haynes
Mr. Smith

Freshman Class

The Freshman class of 1979-1980 has come a long way since Sept. 4th. Faced with new teachers, new schedules, new classes, and new activities, they soon overcame this newness and became a part of William Campbell High School.

They contributed to the success of Homecoming by selecting one lovely representative, Brenda Cheatham, participating as band members, and as clowns. They are also participating in the athletic program. We are looking forward to further contributions from this fine group.

Freshman, Stephanie West, along with the rest of the cheerleaders ride on the float during Homecoming.

What a return! Mellissa Martin gives a great effort to get the ball back across the net.

Six New Generals

With the noise of construction and the pains of moving, the facility had a tough time this year. The noisy machines made it hard for the teachers to keep the attention of the students, and the job of settling down after the move was a tremendous one.

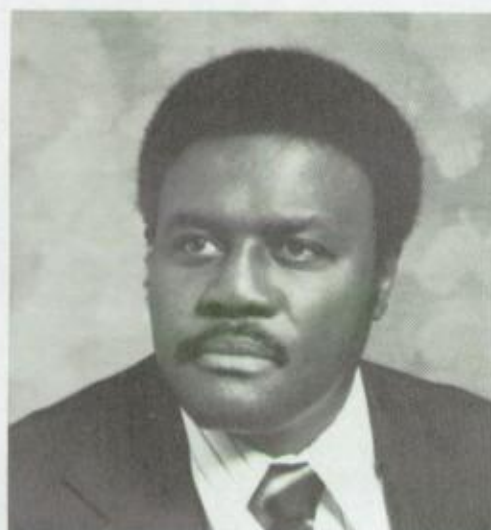

Finally things got back to normal and the faculty began preparing the students for the dreaded 'Exams'. One of the most significant projects of the Faculty, and the thing that most impressed the students was the promotion of School Spirit.

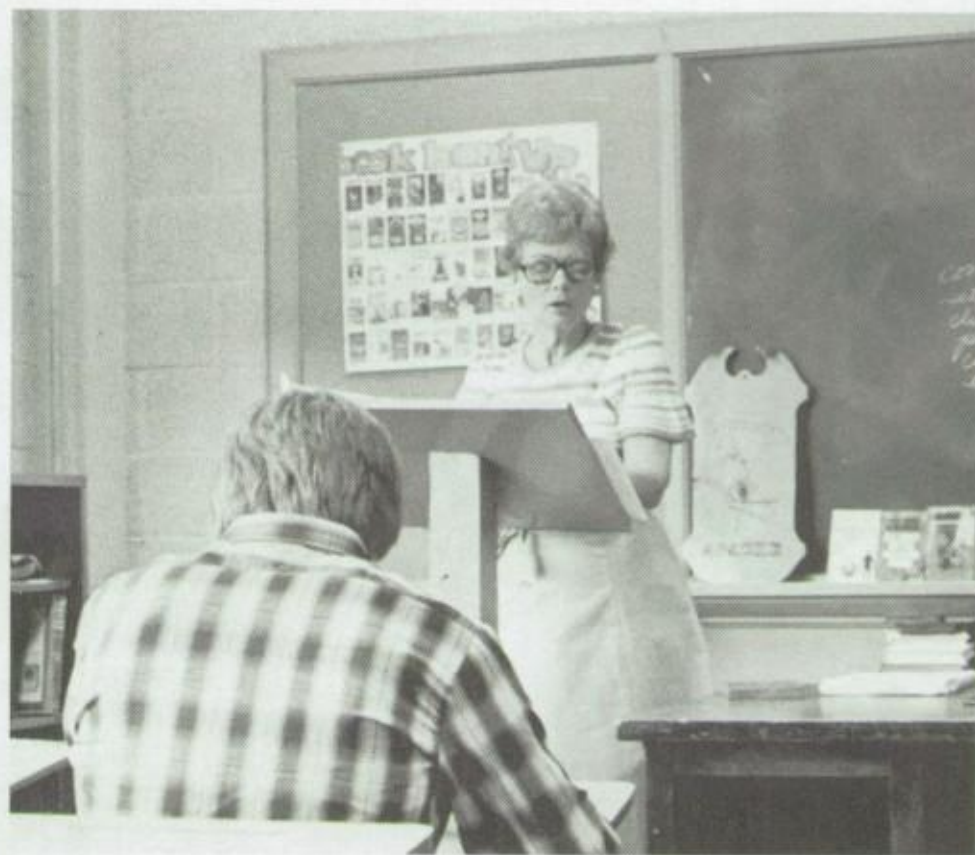

Mrs. Purcell, a new addition to the staff of WC is presented with a Coaches T-shirt during Coaches Week.

"Bus Drivers"

If you think you have trouble getting up early in the morning, think about those faithful bus drivers who get up earlier than you do. They have no choice, whether or not to get up or stay in bed. It's their duty to see that you get to school safe and sound. Be thankful for bus drivers. They may be the only transportation for the future.

"Custodians"

It's 3:00, the bell has rung, you're on your way home, but the custodians are still here at school, cleaning up the mess the students have made all day. The custodians are special people to the students at W.C. They work so we don't have to.

"Cafeteria Workers"

They have a very hard job. They try to cook to satisfy all the students, which is very difficult to do. Although some students dislike some of the food we receive, the cafeteria workers are hired to fix a nutritional lunch for the students at W.C. So, eat, drink and be merry.

On the ground: Fanetta Lovelace, Cornelia Scott. On the bumper: Faye McIvor, David Vaughn, Shirley Jones. On the top: Oscar Calloway, Robert Adams, Alphonza Green, Clarence Monroe.

Just making sure it's dead, Mrs. Mosley goes to it.

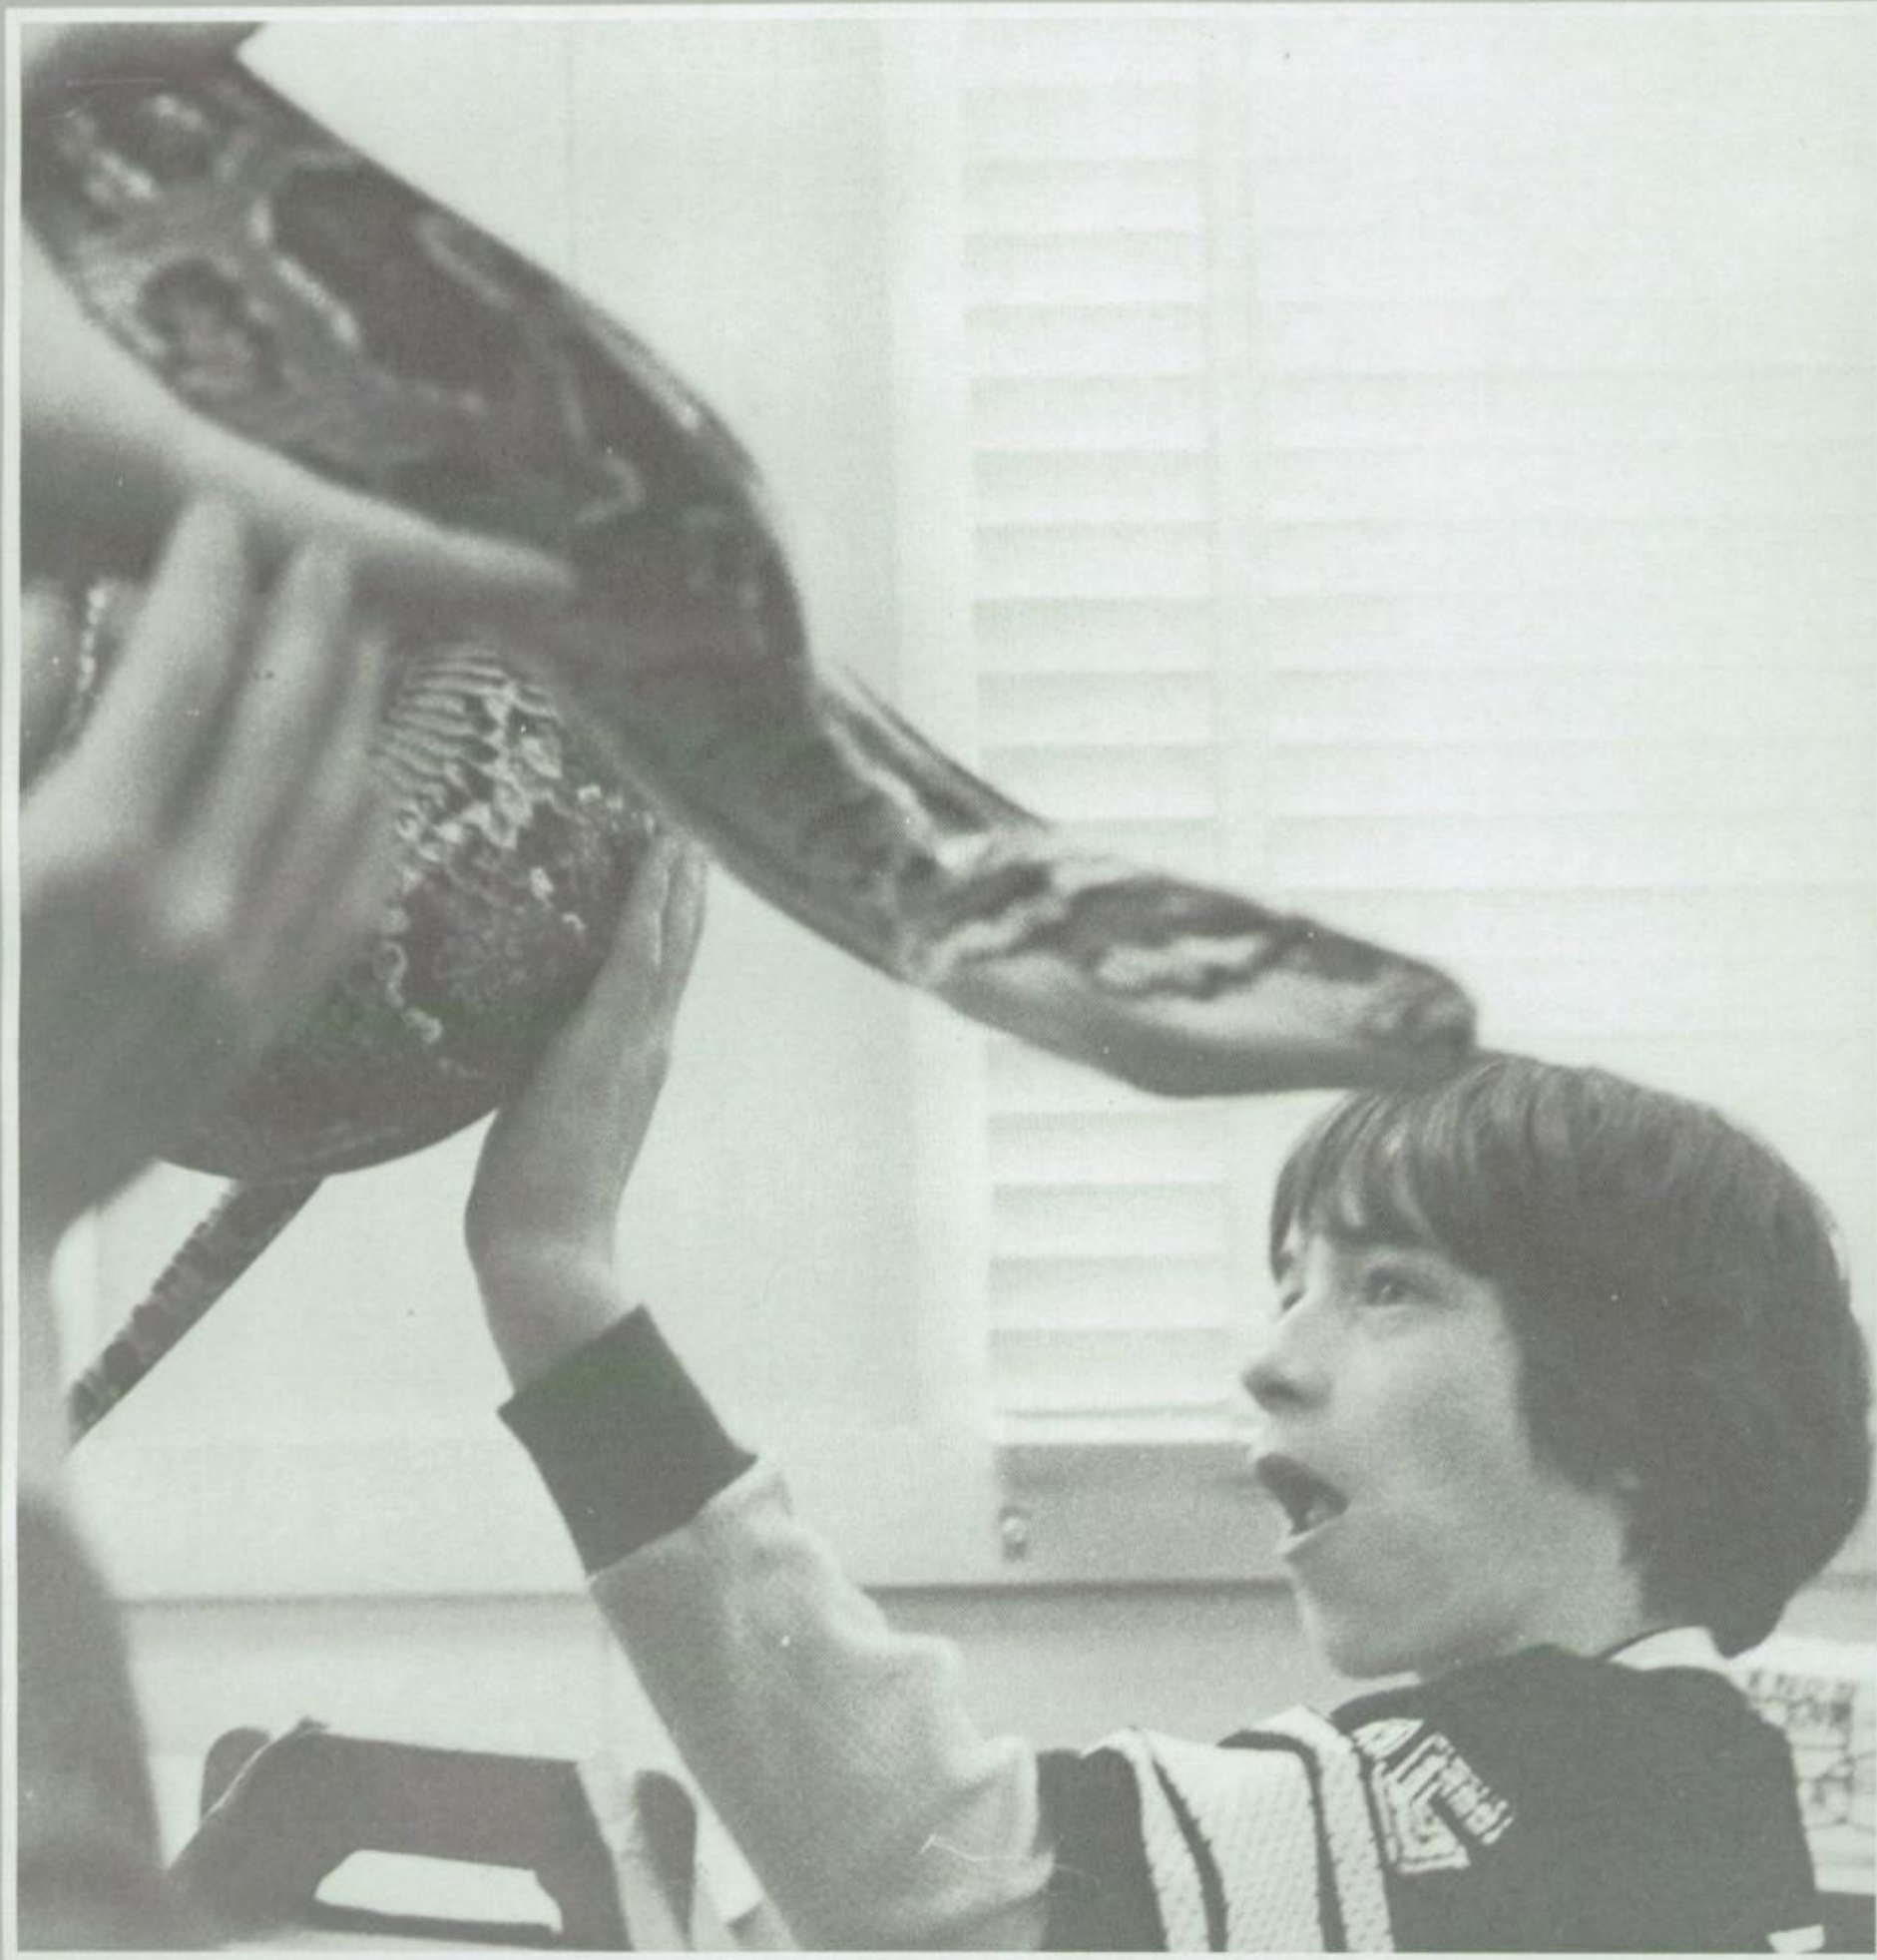

Come and get it! The cafeteria workers seem to really be getting into their work as they serve lunch.

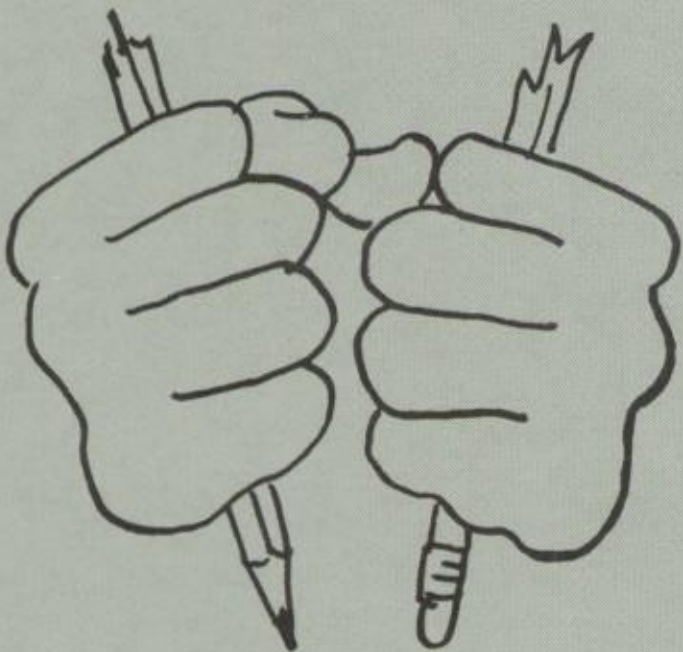

"Put my gloves on?" says Mrs. Rosser while preparing lunch.

"I need Grease Relief" sighs Mrs. Austin.

LET'S FACE IT! WILLIAM CAMPBELL MIDDLE SCHOOL IS HERE!

A very special date was September 4, 1979. Teachers and students alike were energetic, excited, eager, and enthusiastic as they became the reality: William Campbell Middle School. The group of seventh and eighth graders anxiously located their classrooms and greeted their teachers. Under the leadership of Mr. Daniel D. DeJarnette, Principal, the faculty had prepared for the welcome and the challenge of a new year with numerous, planned activities, Miss Vivian M. Wilson, counselor, distributed student schedules and class rolls to the teachers. Our school secretary was Mrs. Phyllis Hamlett. Upon Mrs. Hamlett's resignation, Mrs. Cleo Holt accepted the position.

Our faculty worked eagerly in their various areas of specialization through a departmental approach. The following teachers with their area of specialization are members of the William Campbell Middle School faculty.

Mrs. Sarah Adams — Reading, Mrs. Ann Hunt — Reading, Miss Elenora Doane — Social Studies 7&8, Mrs. Peggy Woodell — Math 7, Mrs. Judy Childress — Math 8, Mr. John Cocke — Science 8, Mr. Allen Harper — Science 7, Mrs. Bettie Yount — Language Arts 8, Mrs. Em Rice — Language Arts 7, Mrs. Joyce Rush — Art 7&8, Mrs. Ann Seamster — Home Economics I, Mr. Preston Coast — Agriculture I, Miss Karen Kelly — E.M.R. & L.D., Miss Delia Barham — E.M.R.

The End

Another one of those teachers who don't seem to be able to get into the Pep Rally? Miss Talley seems to have been caught by surprise.

Waiting patiently for the students to come and get it, is Tiana Wade along with the other members of the Cafeteria Staff.

Not Romeo and Juliet, but Chip Daniels and Lori Black doing what it says not to do in the student handbook.

Always eager to lend a helping hand is Mrs. Johnston, who explains to Ella Hall.

This is the part of the book where the rest of the pages are all brought together. You won't find any definite type of picture here, just all types of things that sort of bring the General family all together. So all together now lets look at the end of A NEW BEGINNING.

Coach Clark tapes the foot of one of the players before a game.

This is a human pyramid built by the 10th grade P.E. Class along with Mrs. Purcell and Mrs. Scruggs.

Sitting in the library can become very boring says Bernice Melton.

Enjoying some Free time during lunch together is Kathy Wright and Coleman Mayhew.

Receiving his T-Shirt from Cindy Hughes for Teacher week is Mr. Koeing.

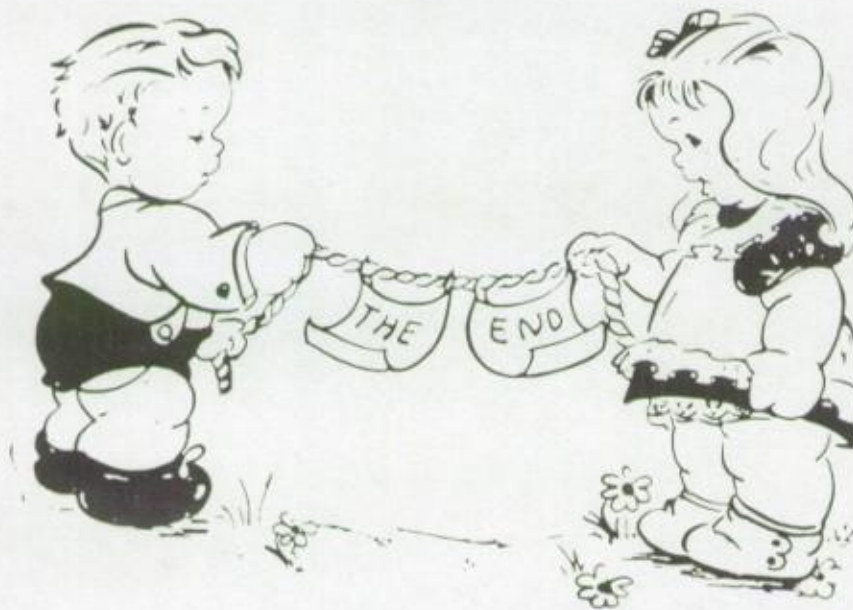

Snow Covers the ground of William Campbell High School after a heavy snow storm.

Winning the trophy for the most valuable and most improved in volleyball is Francis Brodgen and Susie Belvin.

Winning the Trophy for Excellent speaking in a Forsenic Contest is Judy Poindexter and Alice Younger.

A NEW BEGINNING

The WCHS annual staff would like to extend our deepest appreciation to Bob Tavenner and the Delmar Company for all you've done to get this book published.

Thank You,
Alice Younger
Editor-in-Chief
